Call for Recruitment: Nurses

Summary

The Berine & Bokwe Foundation is thrilled to announce an opportunity for two skilled and compassionate nurses to join our transformative Project. Aimed at combating the high maternal mortality rates in the Match District, Cameroon, this initiative seeks dedicated nurses who are passionate about making a difference in the lives of pregnant women and their families in conflict-affected areas.

Location: Match Community, South West Region, Cameroon

Positions Available: 2 Nurses

Type of Employment: Full-Time

Duration: Initial Placement is 4 Months

Responsibilities

- Provide nursing care to pregnant women, including antenatal, perinatal, and postnatal care.
- Administer medications and treatments as prescribed and monitor patient health status.
- Assist in the delivery of babies and provide immediate newborn care.
- Educate pregnant women and their families on health and nutrition, prenatal and postnatal care, family planning, and newborn care.
- Conduct workshops and community health talks to promote maternal and neonatal health.
- Collaborate with community health workers in identifying pregnant women needing care and follow up to ensure they receive necessary services.
- Participate in community outreach programs to raise awareness about the importance of maternal health services.
- Work closely with the healthcare team, including midwives and medical doctors, to ensure coordinated and comprehensive care.

- Maintain accurate patient records and reports for monitoring and evaluation purposes.

Qualifications

- Licensed Nurse with a valid license to practice in Cameroon or the ability to obtain one.
- Minimum of 2 years of experience in nursing, with a preference for experience in maternal and neonatal care.
- Strong communication skills, with proficiency in English
- Ability to work in challenging environments and adapt to the needs of the community.
